FREEZING RAIN DOWNS PHONE AND REA LINES

Thursday's heavy rain, which froze as it fell, coating trees, wires and other objects with ice, caused considerable damage to United Telephone Company lines and wires of the Adams Electric Cooperative, their respective managers said. The Metropolitan Edison Co. suffered no damage or interruption to service, however. Richard E. Dreas, manager, reported.

The ice was worst in the western and northern parts of the county, bordering on and in the mountain areas. Highways there were ice-coated, making driving hazardous.

John E. Caldwell, manager of the United Telephone Co., said eight trunk lines out of Gettysburg to Waynesboro, Fairfield, Hagerstown and Carlisle were out, due to the ice. The service to these towns was not completely cut off, he said.

Three hundred additional individual telephones were also out of service in the Gettysburg District, which includes Gettysburg, Biglerville, Fairfield and York Springs. All services were expected to be restored by tonight, he said.

Calvin A. Cluck, manager of the Adams Electric, said that considerable trouble was experienced in the mountain areas west of Fairfield, Orrtanna, Cahtown and Arendtsville. The towns themselves, he said, were not seriously affected.

Ice formed on trees and broke limbs, which in turn fell on power and telephone lines, breaking them or "shorting" them with other wires. Mr. Cluck said most of his damage was repaired by midnight.

Mr. Caldwell said most of the breaks in telephone lines were in areas where old wire is due to be replaced.

A sleet storm struck northeastern Pennsylvania today, cutting off power and telephone service in many sections and turning roads into treacherous sheets of ice, the Associated Press said.

Heavy snow blanketed some mountain areas while rain fell steadily elsewhere in the Keystone State. Where temperatures hovered at or below the 32-degree mark the rain was described by the weatherman as "freezing rain," making traffic conditions hazardous.

Around Hazleton and Towanda, in the Poconos, the ice storm brought heavy damage and cut off much of the telephone service supplied by the Commonwealth Telephone Co. Lines of the Bell Telephone Co. were reported "operating as usual, with delays slightly above normal." Towanda was isolated.

"Little Pentagon" Worker Is Injured

A 25-year-old construction worker employed by the George Fuller Company at Raven Rock was hit with a cluster of lamps which fell an estimated 20 feet Thursday morning.

Harry Casner, Lewiston, was rushed to the Waynesboro Hospital shortly before 11 o'clock in an ambulance.

He suffered severe neck injuries.

Casner was wearing a safety helmet at the time of the mishap. The weight of the lamp cluster, which was said to have "six or seven lights" and a reflecting surface was estimated at 20 pounds.

DR. LEO F. STOCK IS HONORED BY POPE PIUS XII

Dr. Leo Francis Stock, of Washington, D. C., a native of Gettysburg, was honored by His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, Tuesday, December 30, when the Benemerenti Medal was conferred on him by the Most Rev. Patrick J. McCormack, rector of the Catholic University of America, Washington.

The honoree, who was graduated from Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, in 1896, is a former professor of American History at Catholic University of America and Trinity College, both in Washington, and Mount St. Mary's College.

The occasion was a mass at St. Anthony's Church, Brookland, D. C., his parish, commemorating the Golden Wedding anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Stock. Rev. Fr. William Brennan, pastor of St. Bernard's Church, Cohoes, N. Y., and a Mount classmate of Dr. Stock, was the celebrant of the mass.

Receives Plaque

Later in the day, Dr. and Mrs. Stock were guests of honor at luncheon in the Mayflower Hotel given by the American Catholic Historical Association at which His Excellency, the Most Rev. John M. McNamara, Auxiliary Bishop of Washington, presented Dr. Stock with a plaque in behalf of the association. Dr. Stock is a former president of the historical group.

A reception was held at the Stock residence on Otis St., N.E., Brookland, at which the Apostolic Delegate, His Excellency Archbishop Amleto Giavanni Cicognani, was present. A rosary was presented to Mrs. Stock as a gift from the Pope in honor of her anniversary. The Apostolic Blessing was conferred upon the couple.

Dr. Stock, who is living in retirement after many years as a historical researcher for the Carnegie Institute of Washington, and as a professor of history, is a brother of the late Rev. Pr. Mark E. Stock, pastor of St. Francis Xavier's Church, Gettysburg, for 29 years. Of a family of seven, the following are living: Mrs. Michael J. Flynn, Baltimore St.; a sister; and two brothers, Joseph J. Stock, Lakewood, O., and Simon S. Stock, Harrisburg. Mrs. Charles W. Stock, Harrisburg Street, is a sister-in-law.

One of the scholar's greatest accomplishments was the publication of his book, "United States Ministers to the Papal States" which treated with diplomatic relations between America and the Vatican. A five-volume work, it is regarded as a monumental achievement.

VFW WILL SEND LOCAL SCOUT TO '53 JAMBOREE

Scoutmasters of the Black Walnut district were asked Thursday night to submit the names of worthy scouts from their troops from which one scout will be selected to be sent to the National Boy Scout Jamboree at California next summer.

Arthur J. Roth, chairman of the local Veterans of Foreign Wars post, speaking at a meeting of committee and scoutmasters from the Gettysburg troops held at the Presbyterian Church, reported that the VFW will provide the $385 necessary to send a local scout to California for the 20-day trip, including the jamboree. The scout must be a first class scout, more than 14 years of age, a passing student in school and worthy of representing the district and the VFW, Roth said.

One further requirement is that the scout must be one who otherwise would not be able to attend the jamboree because of financial considerations.

Four Black Walnut Scouts already are scheduled to attend the jamboree.

TWO TOWNSHIPS FIRST TO FILE REPORTS ON '52

Both Mt. Joy and Franklin Townships did well financially during 1952, according to their annual reports filed with the county clerk of courts. The two townships were the first to submit their reports to the clerk's office this year.

Franklin completed the year with a balance of $9,412.78 from its total revenue, including balance of $36,982.96. ## Huge Budget Placed Before Congress Today By Truman; GOP Calls Total "Fantastic"

For year ending June 30:
1953
Income ..... $68,677,000,000
Outgo ..... $74,600,000,000
Deficit ..... $5,900,000,000
Year-end debt ..... $264,000,000,000
1954
Income ..... $68,655,000,000
Outgo ..... $78,600,000,000
Deficit ..... $9,900,000,000
Year-end debt ..... $274,000,000,000

toward a 10 billion dollar deficit 18 months from now.

Truman called for a big increase in foreign aid, mostly for military help to the nation's European allies. But he also included two billions for economic, rather than military, help. Some members of Congress have been urging that all purely economic aid to foreign countries be halted.

The whole foreign aid section promised to be a controversial one. Majority congressional desire, as expressed in a recent survey by The Associated Press, is for reduced spending abroad.

Revision Ahead

The budget message Truman sent Congress today, 11 days before he leaves office, is subject to revision by the incoming Eisenhower administration, which has indicated it will be scrutinized closely and revised, probably starting in April.

But that was the customary reaction of Democratic Congressmen, too, and they frequently fell short of January pledges to trim away billions of dollars. Only time could tell whether, under the GOP, things would be different.

Truman's estimate of government spending was for the fiscal year 1954, which begins July 1. The total was four billion dollars higher than spending projected by the President for the current fiscal year and 12½ billions more than in fiscal 1952, which ended last June 30.

Budget Of Ten Billions

The increases were almost entirely for national security programs and pointed, Truman said,

Probe Attack On Yankees In Korea By Plane Reported To Be An F84 Thunderjet Bomber

SEOUL (AP)—Military investigators today studied burned tents and bomb craters at a Korean Western Front command post where a number of U. S. soldiers were killed or wounded by an unidentified warplane yesterday.

There still was no official report as to the exact number of men killed or wounded, but it was described as "several." Nor was there any confirmation of Kansong in the unoffical reports the plane or planes were Allied.

AP Correspondent George McArthur said the company commander told him, in a conversation over a faulty telephone line: "They went so fast I can't be sure what they were."

A corps officer said the surprised soldiers dived for cover and were unable to clearly identify the planes. The command post area behind the lines in a sheltered valley north of Yonchon was packed by about 15 bomb craters, the officer said. It was bombed and strafed about 11 a. m. yesterday.

The Army reported that Communist casualties for the first week of the month were the lightest since mid-summer. The enemy's evaluated casualties for the week ending Jan. 7 were 1,624.

Other Activity

The spokesman said the South Koreans counted seven killed and estimated they had killed or wounded another 16.

A fourth Communist platoon attacked another advance position in the same area but was hurled back. An estimated 38 North Koreans were killed or wounded in that action.

Minor Communist patrol thrusts were reported elsewhere.

Near-zero cold and a thick overcast grounded virtually all Allied warplanes.

The Army reported that Communist casualties for the first week of the month were the lightest since mid-summer. The enemy's evaluated casualties for the week ending Jan. 7 were 1,624.

Hanover, would give a demonstration at the February meeting at Hampden.

All fire chiefs of the county were asked to make a survey and list fire hazards, such as gasoline storage plants and industries using high volatile materials, and submit these reports at the February meeting. Arrangements are being discussed for the installation of foam equipment and materials available and on matching appropriations.

A discussion of the use of foam and "wet" water in fighting various types of fires followed, and it was announced that Irvin Houck of Houck's Rubber Supply Co. Hanover, would give a demonstration at the February meeting at Hampden.

The next regular meeting will be held Thursday evening, January 22, at 8 o'clock.

Rural Patrons Asked To Clear Mail Boxes

An appeal to rural patrons to remove snow from the approaches to their roadside mail boxes was issued today by Postmaster Lawrence E. Oyler.

BRINK ROBBER SUSPECT WILL BE RELEASED

BOSTON (AP) — Sheriff Fowler L. Tutton of Bradford County, Pa., said early today that Joseph "Specs" O'Keefe, 44, a suspect in the $1,219,000 Brink's robbery, is going to be released from jail there "within a few days."

O'Keefe was cleared of a contempt of court charge in Boston Federal Court Wednesday although he refused to testify before a grand jury investigating the Brink's robbery.

Called "Hoodlum"

Judge William T. McCarthy ruled O'Keefe could not be expected to testify because he is listed by the FBI as a possible participant in the robbery.

Judge McCarthy termed O'Keefe a "hoodlum" and a "menace in the community" in ordering him back to the Pennsylvania jail.

The judge added that in clearing O'Keefe of contempt of court charges he was not wiping out his status as a suspect.

Federal authorities indicated strongly today that in view of the impending release of O'Keefe from the Pennsylvania jail they will move swiftly to see that he is not permitted to get completely out of their touch.

Good Behavior

Sheriff Tutton said O'Keefe's release soon is because six months will be lopped off his three-year sentence for "good behavior."

O'Keefe was given three years in Bradford County, Pa., on Sept. 8, 1950, for having guns and ammunition in his car.

However, O'Keefe had been arrested in June, 1950, and served 90 days in jail before going to trial in Superior Court. The sheriff said that 90 days were to be counted as part of the three-year sentence eventually imposed.

O'Keefe has a police record dating back to when he was eight years old. It includes 60 arrests and 21 convictions.

Blue Jays Pose Strong Threat To Bullet Streak On Saturday; Bream-Men Face Lions Monday

A very strong threat to the undefeated six-game streak of the Gettysburg College basketball team will be offered in the college gymnasium Saturday evening at 8 o'clock when Johns Hopkins sends its scrappy aggregation against the Bullets.

The Blue Jays have come up with one of their finest aggregations in years. For three periods Tuesday afternoon, Hopkins gave the powerful Navy outfit plenty of trouble at Annapolis before succumbing 77-50, Navy putting on a 34-point scoring spree in the final period.

Outstanding for Johns Hopkins so far this season has been Simeon Margolis, sharp-shooting guard He rammed 25 points through the basket against the midshipmen.

In addition to Margolis, other starters listed to face the Bullets include Gipe and Lillien, forwards; Evans, center and Wilson or Williamson, guards. The Blue Jays are reported to be very fast and scrappy which definitely poses them as a serious threat to the Bullets.

Look To Lions

The Bullets' performance against the inexperienced Bucknell team Wednesday was spotty after the holiday layoff, but Coach "Hen" Bream hopes to have his charges ready for Saturday and against powerful Penn State at State College Monday night.

In Penn State the Bullets will be meeting one of the outstanding collegiate teams in the east. The Lions have won five of seven starts and have an entire veteran outfit remaining from last season.

Foremost in the Lion lineup is Jesse Arnelle, 6-5 center. He is surrounded by a classy aggregation including Herm Slezak, captain, Ronnie Weidenhammer, Jack Sherry, and Lew Piorkowski, all of whom played here last season.

Joe Lang continues to set the pace in scoring for the Bullets with a total of 116 points in six games.

ALL-AMERICAN RED HEADS WIN FROM HANOVER

A crowd of approximately 650 fans turned out Thursday evening and watched the All-American Red Heads defeat the Hanover Moose cagers 67-38 on the Gettysburg High School floor.

The Red Heads, heralded as the outstanding girls professional team, turned in a pleasing performance for the spectators and exhibited excellent ability throughout. They presented their clever routine of trick ball handling and comic antics for which they have gained nationwide fame and which delighted the fans.

The Moose held a 30-29 lead at half time but fell behind 49-42 at the end of the third frame. After the Red Heads built up a substantial lead early in the final round the Moose failed in a late rally.

In the preliminary game the Texas Lunch, of the local Community league, spurred in the last half to defeat the Hanover Moose reserves 47-39.

Shippensburg Meets GHS Here Tonight

A stronger-than-usual Shippensburg High School basketball squad tangles with the Gettysburg High cagers here tonight in a South Penn League game.

The Greyhounds swept through six pre-league games before being stopped Tuesday by Chambersburg, favorite to win the loop title. Coach McPherson has a group of hustlers who promise to spring some surprises before the current campaign ends.

Coach George Forney's team was also blasted from the unbeaten ranks in their loop opener at Carlisle Tuesday. They can ill afford to suffer a let-down, another defeat practically eliminating them in the first half race.

At 6:45 o'clock Ross Sachs' Jayvees (3-2), will clash with the Greyhound Jayvees.

MIDDLEWEIGHTS FIGHT TONIGHT

NEW YORK (P) — Rocky Castellan and Ralph (Tiger) Jones, both ranked among the top eight middleweights in the world, have a chance to move into contention for the title vacated by Sugar Ray Robinson tonight when they meet in a 10-roundroa at Madison Square Garden.

Members of the National Boxing Association's executive committee, scheduled to meet with the New York State Athletic Commission tomorrow, will be present at ringside with local officials. As they are to act on a middleweight title tournament over the weekend, they should be ripe for convincing by a decisive winner. The 10 p.m. (EST) bout will be carried on radio (ABC) and television (NBC).

The N. B. A. ranks Castellan, the Luzerne, Pa. boxer, No. 5 in the class and gives Jones, a 24-year-old Yonkers, N. Y. Negro, the No. 8 spot. Castellan, 25, has been highly rated for years but Jones is a "Johnny come lately" to the upper strata on the strength of his upset win Dec. 5 over Johnny Bratton, ex-N. B. A. welter champion.

Lost First Match

Haverford has engaged in one match this season, losing to unbeaten Lafayette.

A highlight of this season's stiff schedule will be the engagement with the always-powerful F. and M. here on February 18.

The squad will be well garbed this year with the purchase of new uniforms consisting of blue trunks and jerseys trimmed in orange.

SNAVELY PAINTS GLOOMY PICTURE OF GRID COACH

WASHINGTON (P) — Don't envy the college football coach—it's a life of hard knocks and few rewards, says Carl Snavely, outgoing president of the American Football Coaches Association.

You're on top of the world today and a bum tomorrow. There's always the danger of envious associates... you have to win half your games or else... chances are you're through before you've hit your prime.

Snavely, himself now out of a job after brilliant successes at Cornell and North Carolina, painted this depressing picture last night in an address to the nation's coaches at the annual Coach of the Year dinner.

Congratulating Michigan State's Clarence Biggie Munin, the 1952 Coach of the Year, the white-haired former Tarheel mentor said:

"Some of our great coaches win their share and he's on top of the world. Then a new hidden danger besets him, envy and jealousy on the part of important individuals, and one such enemy high in the university family, one displeased man on his staff, can bring disaster to the best of coaches."

Snavely issued this cautionary word as if drawing upon his own experiences. He was let out at North Carolina after winning two games and losing six last fall. He has faculty status at reduced salary if he wants it. But, at 54, he's looking for another coaching job.

Pro Bowl Football Is Season Windup

LOS ANGELES (P) — Individual prestige and a healthy rivalry between the two conferences of the National Football League combine to make tomorrow's third annual pro bowl football game an outstanding windup of the 1952-53 grid season.

The contest, pitting a select squad of 31 players of the National Conference against 31 of the best in the American Division, will be televised over the National Broadcasting Co. network. It will not be televised in the Los Angeles area.

The telecast starts at 4:15 p.m. (EST). The kickoff is set for 1:30 p.m. (430 p.m. EST).

Desert and arctic areas have fewer thunderstorms than hotter and wetter areas.

Veteran College Wrestling Squad Will Meet Haverford Away In Opening Encounter

Jack Shainline's all-veteran Gettysburg College wrestling squad will inaugurate its 1953 campaign by clashing with a highly regarded Haverford squad Saturday afternoon at Haverford.

The Bullets, four-time champions of the Middle Atlantic tournament, are hopeful of one of their most successful seasons in history, pinning their hopes on the classy array of veterans who have turned in outstanding performances in the past.

Four of Shainline's squad were individual Middle Atlantic champions last season.

They include Don Woods, 123, a senior, whose only loss last season was at Franklin and Marshall. During the past year he was runnerup in the Eastern Olympic trials. He faces a very worthy opponent Saturday.

Al Hershberger, 167, another senior, was undefeated last year when he won six of eight matches by falls. He has lost but one bout in his collegiate career.

RECEIVED Tourney Honor

Jim Spangler, 177, also a senior, was voted the outstanding wrestler in the Middle Atlantic tourney last year. He won five of eight matches last year by falls.

The fourth Middle Atlantic Titlist is Earl Yost, 147, a junior. His lone setback last year was also at P. and M.

Sam Evangelista, 130, a junior, was a runnerup in the Middle Atlantic last year, losing in the finals on a referee's decision.

Jim Howard, 137, is a sophomore. As a freshman last season he gained third place in the tournament.

The heavyweight class will be represented by Ronnie Miller, a junior, who lost but one bout last year in his first year of mat warfare. He also placed third in the Middle Atlantic.

John Cagiano, a junior, will wrestle the 157 or 167 class. Last year was his first season. Completing the squad is Frank Keenan, a 167-pounder, who is a junior.

Box, Christiansen Picked

Chosen from the Lions, beside Creekmire, were End Cloyce Box, Quarterback Bobby Layne for the attacking unit and Tackle Thurmond McGraw and Halfback Jack Christiansen for the defending setup. Christiansen led the league in returning punts.

Besides Ford and Willis, the other Clevelanders chosen are Center Frank Gatski and Guard Lou Groza.

DETROIT LIONS PLACE 5 ON ALL PRO GRID TEAM

Today's Talk

ON LEARNING

Great as is my love of books, I believe I can truthfully say that I have learned more through listening to others, and by profiting by my own mistakes, than from anything else. Our everyday life is much like being in a school room where we learn by listening. There it is that we learn and gain knowledge without ever asking for it.

We get quite confident of our own wisdom until we make some big mistake, and then we realize how wise others are and we ought to pay attention to them and learn to avoid mistakes and blunders.

Instinct in animals is most interesting. They are given this to save them from trouble and to preserve their own lives.

I have a small book in my library by Arnold Bennett which he called "How to Live on Twenty-four Hours a Day." It is an inspiring book. In it he said: "You wake up in the morning, and lo! Your purpose is magically filled with twenty-four hours of unmanufactured tissue of the universe of your life! It is yours." What hidden wealth there is in a single day!

There is nothing to keep us from learning, or thinking out something of profit to ourselves or others, to the very last day of our lives. Even though we may breathe, if we learn nothing, and think nothing to a good account, we might as well be non-existent.

We can go back to the wisdom of the Chinese, thousands of years ago, and there learn lessons that have become the daily ritual of the world.

Nothing is so contagious as an idea. It spreads. It gets fed. The world is nourished by ideas. That day is the most successful in which we have learned most. In the reading of a book I am always thrilled upon meeting a brilliant expression. I mark and turn again and again to the books with the most markings that I may again experience those joys of discovery.

In nature there is something new going on all the time. We can't learn too much about "what God hath wrought." Nature is a nest of miracles. How humble we should feel in the presence of such beauty. What a spectacle of wonder from which to gather knowledge!

Twenty-four months have proven to be too short. Out of this, there is only about 10 months of combat duty.

Hear Bradley Today

"Our troops reach only about 75 per cent efficiency before they have to be sent home."

He added that service terms would have to be frozen before American forces could start another offensive in Korea. Otherwise, he said, there would not be enough combat manpower.

Van Zandt brought up the politically hot question as the House Armed Services Committee resumed its study of the world-wide military situation. Today's witness, Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, continues an extensive survey of global strategy, in a closed-door session.

Secretary of Defense Lovett began the review yesterday.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Sounds."

THOSE GOOD OLD DAYS

They're called "the good old days" and yet

They had some woes I can't forget.

Some hardships every family knew,

Especially the winter through.

One—worst of trouble's various types—

Back then, was frozen water pipes.

I shivered as I stood about To watch my father thaw them out.

A few old rags he'd snugly wrap About the frozen pipe and tap,

And from the last full kettle's stem Pour boiling water over them.

A thought of Shakespeare this reveals:

One woe treads on another's heels.

The furnace stopped some cares we'd known,

But to supplant them brought its own.

I still can hear by father shout: "Mother, you've let the fire to out!"

Sifting the ashes was a chore I'm glad I'll have to do no more. Throwing the clinkers out, and then

Saving the coal to burn again.

The good old days," well, I am one

Who shed no tears when they passed on.

URGE TIGHTER UNIFICATION OF ARMED FORCES

WASHINGTON (P)—Tighter unification of the armed forces and draft law revisions to boost fighting efficiency in Korea were urged today by two Republican congressmen who held key votes on defense legislation.

Sen. Saltonstall (R-Mass.), slated to head the armed services committee in the Republican-controlled Senate, described the present unification Act as a "compromise setup."

He told a reporter the function of the Joint Chiefs of Staff needs study, as do the workings of the staff of the secretary of defense, the separate service research branches and the makeup of the Munitions Board—all organized under the Unification Act.

Draft Changes Urged

Saltonstall also said operation of the Selective Service Act should be changed, either by amendments or by executive order of President Eisenhower after his Jan. 20 inauguration.

Rep. Van Zandt (R-Pa.), a member of the House Armed Services Committee, called for a six to eight months increase in draft service. In a separate interview he said he would ask Congress to consider draft terms of between 30 and 36 months, instead of 24 months as at present.

Van Zandt, a Naval Reserve captain, returned last week from seven weeks of active duty, much of it in Korea. There, he said, he traveled incognito talking to officers and men and decided:

"Twenty-four months have proven to be too short. Out of this, there is only about 10 months of combat duty.

The Eisenhower Story 5.

Lands in Africa

Wins Campaign

Goes to Italy

Disciplines Patton

The tide in World War II began to turn against Hitler and Mussolini in the fall of 1942. The Russians started encirclement of Stalingrad. And during the pre-dawn darkness of Nov. 8, the first big blow came from the west.

In the greatest (up to that time) amphibious operation of history, the western allies invaded French North Africa with 150,000 American and 140,000 British troops, transported and escorted by 850 ships.

The huge force was commanded first from Gibraltar and later from Algiers by a man who had never before led men into battle—Lt. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

And 181 days later, the campaign was over. With the mass surrender of German and Italian troops in Tunisia, the Axis was licked in North Africa.

Eisenhower had shown himself a great strategist, organizer and harmonizer. He had also shown he was not afraid to be daring, to defy orthodoxy. In Tunisia, it was Ike who personally ordered the American II Corps to move up from the South to the North. This was unprecedented since it involved crossing one corps' line of communications with another corps. But it paid off. It made the big Bizerte push possible.

Events now moved quickly below "the soft underbelly of Europe." In July, 1942, Eisenhower's forces invaded Sicily. On Sept. 3, they invaded Italy and began the long march up the mainland. Meanwhile, Mussolini had resigned and escaped to the Germans and the Badoglio government signed an armistice, although the Nazis continued to defend Italy bitterly.

This was also the summer that Gen. George S. Patton lost his temper and slapped a GI who had been evacuated to a Sicilian hospital for a nervous disorder.

Eisenhower was faced with a delicate choice—to sack one of his most effective field commanders or keep him on in the face of public opinion.

There was a public outcry later but Ike held on to Patton. He dressed him down severely, made him apologize to the slapped GI and various other troops in public. Even his worst critics were glad Patton was still around next year for the invasion of France.

In September, 1943, an American Legion post in New York suggested Eisenhower for President, "Baloney!" said Ike. He had more pressing business elsewhere.

On Christmas Eve, 1943, President Roosevelt announced the appointment of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as supreme commander of Allied Expeditionary Forces for the invasion of Europe.

FOLLOWING CHRIST

Matthew 16

Key verse: You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. Matt: 16:16

His disciples had been with Jesus from the beginning of His public ministry. They had just returned from a preaching mission and rejoiced with their success. They had done marvelous things in Jesus' name. Perhaps they were secretly speculating what their Master might accomplish in relieving the distress of the Hebrew people under the oppressive Roman rule. For various reasons Jesus decided the moment had arrived when He should clarify their thinking about Himself and His mission.

So He put this startling question: "Who do men say that the Son of man is?" They replied that He was considered a great man, one of the prophets, perhaps John the Baptist returned to life. Then the further question: "Who do you say that I am?" From

DEMOCRATS IN NEED OF FUNDS FOR MAIN OFFICE

PHILADELPHIA (P)—Forty leading Pennsylvania Democrats held their first get-together since the general election Wednesday and concluded their biggest problem right now is to raise enough money to keep their state headquarters in operation.

After some five hours of discussion, agreement was reached at the closed meeting that the bare minimum needed for operational costs would be $65,000 to $70,000 a year.

Despite their financial difficulties the group discussed the possibility of expanding the headquarters staff to include a public relations man and a "good will ambassador" to spur enthusiasm "among the younger people."

For the time being the party shoves into the background the problems of formulating policy to be followed in this year's session of the Legislature and the gubernatorial campaign of 1954.

Three of the group most prominently mentioned as possible standard-bearer for the party in 1954 were present but weren't talking about their intentions, if any.

They were: Mayor David L. Lawrence, the party national committeeman, who said his primary concern right now is this year's municipal election in Pittsburgh, where he is expected by most observers to seek re-election.

Philadelphia Dist. Atty. Richardson Dilworth who said he wants to "wait and see how we do in the Philadelphia municipal election this fall. If we win and if the majority is not a small one, I will be able to tell you better then."

Former Federal Judge Guy K. Bard, defeated in November in his campaign for the U. S. Senate, who said he had no comment.

State Supreme Court Justice Michael Musmanno, also mentioned as a possible candidate for governor, was not present.

With regard to the financial situation, Dilworth had the most to say to reporters. He said he sees the problem as one that can be solved and that the state headquarters should definitely take on the extra help.

"We need to do more work in the rural areas where there is plenty of enthusiasm for the Democratic party but where we need some more spadework," Dilworth said.

Among the others who attended the meeting were:

Former U. S. Sen. Francis J. Myers, State Chairman Maurice J. Splain, Party State Secretary Genevieve Blatt; State Sen. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader; Philadelphia Mayor Joseph S. Clark Jr.; State Sen. William J. Lane, Washington County commissioner; Mayor James T. Hanlon of Scranton; Lackawanna County Chairman Michael Lawler; and Edward J. Lynett, publisher of the Scranton Times.

York Springs

The regular meeting of the North Adams PTA has been postponed a week because of the Farm Show. It will be held Monday evening, January 19, at 7:30 o'clock in the York Springs High School. The committee is planning a program based on health problems which arise both at home and in school. An expert will be on hand to present his views on this important problem, especially as it is related to contagious diseases.

POLICE PRESS MANHUNT FOR GIRL'S SLAYER

READING, Pa. (P)—Police of Reading and all Berks County renewed Thursday an all-out manhunt for the sex maniac slayer of 14-year-old Dorothy Schlappie whose nearly nude body was found stuffed in a trash can in a neighborhood alley.

Twenty-four hours of intensive searching, during which police questioned dozens of persons, had produced no definite clue toward the slayer, officers reported. But they resumed Thursday, intent on tracking down every known sex offender in this Eastern Pennsylvania city of 120,000.

The brutal slaying spread a wave of shock and fear throughout the community. Police headquarters said nearly a dozen complaints of "peeping Toms" and molesters were received Wednesday, many of them from the northwestern section of the city where Dorothy lived with her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sauber. All of these reports were investigated, but no arrests were made, police reported.

Strangled. Assaulted

An autopsy Wednesday showed that Dorothy had been strangled and criminally assaulted before the slayer doubled her body like a jack-knife and crammed it into the trash container. As police reconstructed the crime, Dorothy was seized as she walked past an alleyway Tuesday night while returning to her home and strangled so that she could make no outcry although marks in the vicinity indicated she had struggled violently with the assailant.

That happened shortly before 9 p.m., police said. The girl was missed when she failed to return home. Her family began a search and later notified police. Sauber found the child's body about 3 a.m. Wednesday. The killing took place within two blocks of her home, and about the same distance from Northwest Junior High School where she was a ninth grade student.

Was Quiet Student

Relatives and friends of the girl were numbed by the tragedy. Her school teachers, her pastor and girl friends all agreed that Dorothy was a "quiet, earnest student" a "sweet, well-mannered girl," who made friends easily, had no enemies.

Dr. Paul B. Good, Berks County Coroner, said an inquest will be held this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sauber, who adopted Dorothy through the Children's Aid Society when she was an infant only a few months old, sorrowfully went ahead with plans for funeral services on Saturday.

JAIL BARS MARRIAGE TO HUBBY'S BROTHER

ITHACA, N. Y. (P)—A jail sentence temporarily interrupted a 23-year-old ex-chorus girl's plans for her fourth marriage today.

Mrs. Lois Weston of Youngstown, O., was sentenced Wednesday to 30 days in jail after pleading guilty to passing $95 worth of bad checks here.

The attractive former show girl said she plans to marry Sgt. Richard W. Weston, 22, brother of her husband, Dale C. Weston, who is stationed with the Army at Indian-town Cap., Pa. She said her present spouse had consented to an annulment.

Mrs. Weston and Richard were arrested Dec. 30 in Buffalo. Richard was sent back to Sampson Air Force Base, which said he was AWOL.

Authorities said Mrs. Weston also faces check-passing charges in Philadelphia.

Raisins are a nutritious snack to have on hand for children because they are rich in iron, have fair amounts of other minerals and "B" vitamins. Their simple fruit sugar makes them taste high as an easily digested, high-energy food.

Strangled. Assaulted

An autopsy Wednesday showed that Dorothy had been strangled and criminally assaulted before the slayer doubled her body like a jack-knife and crammed it into the trash container. As police reconstructed the crime, Dorothy was seized as she walked past an alleyway Tuesday night while returning to her home and strangled so that she could make no outcry although marks in the vicinity indicated she had struggled violently with the assailant.

That happened shortly before 9 p.m., police said. The girl was missed when she failed to return home. Her family began a search and later notified police. ## SOLONS DIVIDED ON NEW TRY AT ATOM CONTROLS

WASHINGTON (P)—Congress members remained divided today over the value of any new try for international atomic controls while applauding President Truman's stern warning to Stalin that nuclear warfare might end civilization.

Senate Republican Leader Taft of Ohio, who voiced sharp criticism of Truman's valedictory to Congress Wednesday, told a reporter President-elect Eisenhower probably will have his own State of the Union message ready for Congress soon after his Jan. 20 inauguration.

In commenting on the Truman State of the Union message, Taft said everybody could agree on "the basic principle of opposition to Communist Russia," but he contended Truman's operation of this policy had been "full of error, of wavering, of failure . . ."

There were no indications what Eisenhower, in his own message, might say about atomic developments and possible future controls.

At that time, the new President can be expected to outline his views on what Taft had described in a statement as a legacy of the Truman administration—"the most dangerous foreign problem this country ever faced."

IKE CONSULTS MORE ADVISERS TODAY IN N. Y.

NEWS YORK (AP)—President-elect Eisenhower consults advisers today on a wide range of domestic and foreign problems in preparation for the first two speeches he will deliver to Congress as chief executive.

He is devoting most of his time to writing his inaugural address and the traditional State of the Union message.

Apparently in that connection, he had an hour-long conference yesterday with Bernard M. Baruch, 82-year-old elder statesman. In summarizing their talk, Baruch said they discussed military security and "the economic well-being of the United States—things we've discussed since 1930."

3 Private Conferences

Baruch gave no details, and Eisenhower's aides said they could not amplify. "He (Eisenhower) is talking about a great many things," an aide said, indicating the conferences may have a bearing on the President-elect's two forthcoming speeches.

Baruch's New York apartment was the scene of three private conferences this week between Eisenhower and Prime Minister Winston Churchill. Baruch was asked whether, since talking with Churchill, he has changed any of his ideas about peace and security. He said he has not. "They are as simple and as dogmatic as the statement that one and one make two."

Sees Henry Luce

Henry Luce, editor-in-chief of Time magazine, presees Baruch into Eisenhower's office.

He parried questions as to whether he may be offered a diplomatic post with the statement, "I wouldn't discuss that."

He declared, however, "I just came back from six weeks in the Far East, and I gave him (Eisenhower) some of my impressions."

57,626 POLIO CASES IN U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A record total of 57,626 cases of infantile paralysis was reported in 1952. It compares with the previous high of 42,033 cases in 1949 and with 28,795 cases in 1951.

Reporting the figure Thursday, the Public Health Service said, however, that the incidence rate of 37 cases per 100,000 population in 1952 was below the rate of 42 per 100,000 population in 1949.

The 1916 figure is based on the cases and population of 28 states and the District of Columbia. Other states did not make reports in that year.

The Health Service said too that polio was not as great a killer in 1952 as in 1949 or in 1916.

It figured there were 4.8 deaths per 100 cases in 1952 compared with 5.6 deaths per 100 in 1949 and about 25 in 1916.

Littlestown*UNION SERVICES END TONIGHT

The inclement weather did not hinder the usual large attendance at the preaching mission service on Thursday evening in St. Paul's Lutheran Church. The Rev. Henry S. Raab, of Harrisburg, who is the guest speaker for the mission services being conducted each evening this week, chose for his sermon topic last night, "A Sure Cure for Worry." The Rev. Mr. Raab stressed four points in his talk as follows: "Don't cry over spilled milk; live in a day tight compartment; face the inevitable, and develop and use your Christian faith."

The service was in charge of the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, pastor of Redeemer's Reformed Church. He read the Scripture, gave the offertory prayer, introduced the speaker and the Littlestown Men's Chorus. The members of the chorus, under the direction of L. Robert Snyder, sang two special selections, "The Church's One Foundation" with Harold O. Sennz as baritone soloist and "Thanks Be to Thee," Handel. Miss Shirley Hawk was accompanist for the chorus. The choir from St. Paul's Church led the congregational singing and Mrs. Winfield A. Lippy, church organist, presided at the

Mr. Raab will present the message of the evening. Music for the service will be in charge of the Senior choir of Redeemer's Church.
